1. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

1.1. The terms and conditions set out herein will constitute the Employee's contract of employment with the company. The start date for the new position will be 01 November 2025, but it is agreed that the Employee's date of continuous service for benefits and statutory purposes remains 03 January 2023.Where a basic condition of employment is not specifically mentioned, the relevant legislation will be applicable (e.g., the Basic Conditions of Employment Act 75 of 1997, the Labour Relations Act, Act 66 of 1995 amendments to legislation etc.).

2. JOB DESCRIPTION

2.1. The Employee will be employed as a Practice Manager and by signing this contract, the Employee confirms that he/she are in possession of all the relevant and required licenses as required by law.

3. DUTIES

3.1. The duties of this position are set out in the Duties Sheet/Job Description which will be provided separately. The Duties Sheet forms part of this contract. Subsequent changes thereto may only be affected in consultation with the Employee.

3.2. Although the Employee has been employed in the position referred to in paragraph 2.1 and will therefore be responsible for the duties referred to in paragraph 3.1 supra, he/she may be required to perform other duties that may reasonably be expected of him /her within the company from time to time.

3.3. During the period of employment within the company the Employee will report as per Company's Organisational Chart and obey instructions given by him/her and any other person duly authorised (or delegated) by the company to do so.

4. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

4.1. This contract of employment may be terminated only on notice of not less than-

4.1.1. one week, if the Employee has been employed for six months or less;

4.1.2. two weeks, if the Employee has been employed for more than six months but not more than one year;

4.1.3. one month, if the Employee has been employed for one year or more;

5. REMUNERATION

5.1. The Employee's total monthly remuneration will be R57 644,24 (Fifty Seven Thousand Six Hundred and Forty Four Rand and Twenty Four Cents only), payable in arrears on the 25th day of each month. Should the regular payment date fall on a public holiday, the employer will pay the salary on the last working day before said day.

5.2. The following will be deducted from the salary:

5.2.1. PAYE

5.2.2. UIF

6. ANNUAL SALARY REVIEW

6.1. The Company will review salaries annually on the anniversary of its financial year.

6.2. Salary increment will solely be dependent on the Company's financial position.

7. WORKING HOURS

7.1. Normal working hours will be from 08:00 am to 17:00pm from Mondays to Fridays or flexible hours when required.

7.2. The Employee will be required to work overtime from time to time, which will be communicated and arranged in advance where possible.

8. MEAL INTERVALS

8.1. The Employee is entitled to a lunch break of 60 minutes.

9. OVERTIME

9.1. Payment of overtime

9.1.1. For employees earning below the BCEA threshold of R205 433.30 per annum, non-managerial and non-sales employees, the EMPLOYEE shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act.

9.1.2. Payment of overtime is however not applicable to the following employees:

9.1.2.1. senior managerial employees;

9.1.2.2. employees engaged as sales staff who travel to the premises of customers and who regulate their own hours of work;

9.1.2.3. employees who work less than 24 hours a month for an employer

10. ANNUAL LEAVE

10.1. The Employee is entitled to leave of 15 (fifteen) working days per annum. A portion of which must be taken during our annual shutdown period in December.

10.2. The Employee shall be paid his/her normal remuneration during annual leave.

10.3. Annual leave must be taken at times convenient to the Company and may only be taken with the prior written approval of the Company. Such approval must be obtained before the Employee goes on leave. The Company will not unreasonably withhold consent for annual leave.

10.4. Leave must be applied for in writing in the form and manner prescribed by the company from time to time and may only be taken after approval by the company or its delegated authority.

10.5. In the event that the Employee has not yet taken all of his/her annual leave accrued to him/her on termination of employment, the Employee shall be paid in lieu of such accrued annual leave.

10.6. Leave may not be accumulated for more than eighteen (18) months, except where explicit written consent is obtained, detailing the amount of leave which may be accumulated. Motivated written application must be made to obtain such consent.

10.7. Leave accumulated in terms of special permission referred to above will not be paid out at termination of service. Leave may thus not be accumulated for purposes of inflating a severance package.

11. SICK LEAVE

11.1. The Employee shall be entitled to 30 (thirty) days paid sick leave during every period of 36 consecutive months' employment with the Company ("a sick leave cycle"). Such sick leave shall, in the first 6 (six) months of employment, only accrue at 1 (one) day for each 26 (twenty-six) days of employment.

11.2. The Employee will notify the Company as soon as possible but not later than 06:00am on the first day of any illness that he shall be absent from work due to such illness. Upon the Employee's return to work, he must complete the required leave form.

11.3. When absent due to illness/injury for 2 (two) or more consecutive working days, the Employee must submit a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

11.4. Where the Employee is absent on a Friday or Monday or a day before or after a public holiday a medical certificate will be required.

11.5. When absent due to illness/injury on more than 2 (two) occasions in an 8 (eight) week period, the Employee must submit a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner.

12. FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY LEAVE

12.1. The Employee is entitled to 3 (three) days family responsibility leave per annum only after 4 (four) months of service, on request, when the Employee's child is sick or for the death of the Employee's spouse or life partner, parent, adoptive parent, grandparent, child, adopted child, grandchild or sibling (as per the Basic Conditions of Employment Act 1997.)

12.2. Before paying the Employee for leave in terms of this clause, the Company may require reasonable proof of the event for which the leave was required.

13. DEDUCTIONS FROM REMUNERATION

13.1. The employer may not deduct any monies from the Employee's salary unless the Employee has agreed thereto in this contract or in writing on each occasion.

14. HEALTH

14.1. The Employee confirms that he/she is in good physical and mental health and is capable of carrying out all the duties assigned to him/her by the Employer.

14.2. Should the Employee be found not to be able to perform his/her duties in a competent and proper manner to the satisfaction of the Employer due to health reasons then the Employer shall reserve the right to terminate the Employee's services.

14.3. The Employee certifies that he/she has not contracted or does not suffer from any serious contagious disease.

14.4. In the event of illness, he/she shall inform the Employer immediately who will have the right to decide whether to terminate the Employee's employment.

15. TRADE SECRETS/CONFIDENTIALITY

15.1. The Employee undertakes, without prejudice to any general duty of confidentiality, not to disclose during the continuance of this contract or afterwards, any of the trade secrets of the employer or any information which is confidential to the employer's business. Trade secrets include the following, which list will not be regarded as exhaustive, medical techniques, proposal contents, patient contacts and information, etc.

15.2. The Employee further undertakes immediately after the termination of his/her services to hand over to the employer all documentation and data in his /her possession belonging to the employer, whether in hard copy, contained on hard drive or any other recording medium, including documents made by him/her in the course of his/her employment. The aforementioned implies that any copy, abstract, or any precis of any document belonging to the employer made by the Employee, or any other person shall itself belong to the employer.

15.3. The Employee will not be liable to the employer for information divulged in terms of legislation or a court order compelling him/her to do so.

16. EXCLUSIVE SERVICE

16.1. The appointment under this contract is a full-time appointment and the Employee shall devote his/her full commitment, energy and attention to the employer's business.

16.2. The Employee shall not at any time during the continuance of this contract be directly or indirectly engaged, concerned or interested, whether for reward or otherwise, in any other trade, business or profession without the explicit written consent of the employer.

17. POLICIES, GRIEVANCE AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

17.1. The Employee will be subject to the company's disciplinary procedure, code of conduct and policies as determined and amended from time to time.

17.2. The Disciplinary Procedure will be made available to the Employee.

17.3. Grievances or problems can be raised through the stipulated internal communication channels.

18. GENERAL

18.1. Any changes to this agreement will only be valid if they are in writing and have been agreed upon and signed by both parties.
